

Maria Austina is a lyrical soprano. She was born in Jakarta, Indonesia but grew up and raised in Singapore. Maria has graduated from Lasalle College Of The Arts in 2019 majoring in Classical Voice. Now, she is currently pursuing bachelor's in music performance (Classical Voice) at her alma mater.

She has won the 2nd prize winner for the American Protégé International Vocal Competition 2018 and has been invited to sing at the prestigious Carnegie Hall. Maria also participated in the Singapore Performers' Festival 2018 at the Yong Siew Toh Conservatory of Music and received the Gold award for the Solo Voice category.

She has been under the tutelage of Mr Reuben Lai since 2019. Maria has attended masterclasses by Prof Barbara Bonney, Prof Michele Crider, Prof Marion Eckstein and Prof Finnuala McCarthy in both Germany and Austria. In Jakarta, she also attended masterclasses by the renown Indonesian Soprano, Bernadeta Astari who is based in the Netherland.

She is a past member of the Singapore Symphony Youth Choir (SSYC) and Seira Vocal Ensemble. Her performances with SSYC includes the Christmas concert with the Singapore Symphony Youth Choir (SSYC) where she was featured as the soloist, at the Esplanade Concourse as part of the Esplanade 'Cool Classics' program in 2016.

Maria is currently a member of the Schola Cantorum Singapore(SCS) choir. She has recently performed as a guest singer for Lasalle's Piano Voyage Concert at the Singapore Airlines theatre.