

Maria Austina is a trained classical singer and pianist. She started her musical journey at the tender age of 5 where she started playing the piano and classical singing at 12. Maria has been actively performing both as a soloist and chorister. She will be graduating with a Bachelor's in Music(Hons) specializing in classical voice.

In 2018, Maria won 2nd prize winner in the American Protégé International Vocal competition. She also received Gold award in the Singapore Performers' Festival 2018 for Solo Voice category. Maria was featured as the soloist at the Esplanade Concourse as part of the Esplanade Cool Classic Program together with Singapore Symphony Youth Choir in 2016. Maria has attended many masterclasses with acclaimed singers such as Barbara Bonney, Michele Crider and Bernadeta Astari.